

COASTAL PLANTS 2015

Supplementing Beachgrass— Using a Variety of Species and Techniques to Stabilize the Shoreline

May 29, 2015

WHOI, Quissett Campus, Room Clark 507, Woods Hole, MA

Directions: <http://www.whoi.edu/main/quissett-campus>

Easy parking at the WHOI Quissett Campus and for our colleagues on the islands we're providing free pick-up/drop-off at Woods Hole Ferry Terminal. Depart Vineyard Haven at 7:00 am, arrive Woods Hole at 7:45 am.

Agenda

- 8:00 am Registration & coffee
8:30 am Introduction – Bill Clark, Cape Cod Cooperative Extension (CCCE)

Attendees will receive 2 MCLP
Education Credits

Appropriate Plants for Southeast MA

- 8:40 am Recent and Future Erosion, Greg Berman, WHSG & CCCE
9:00 am Beyond Beach Grass; Plants for Coastal Exposures, Russ Norton, (CCCE)
9:20 am StormSmart Factsheet, Rebecca Haney, Coastal Zone Management
9:40 am Plant Use & Selection in the Era of Climate Change, Chris Miller, USDA-NRCS

10:40 am Break

Ways to Minimize Impacts

- 11:00 am State-listed Species, Habitats & Plantings,
Amy Hoenig, Natural Heritage & Endangered Species Program
11:20 am Mimicking Performance of Beach Grass, Gordon Peabody, Safe Harbor Environmental
11:40 am Efforts to Improve the Sustainability of Coastal Plantings, Chris Miller, USDA-NRCS

12:40 pm Lunch provided

"Cradle-to-Grave"

- 1:40 pm A Seed Growers Perspective, Mark Lavoie, Colonial Seed Company
2:10 pm A Grower's Perspective, Tim Friary, Cape Cod Organic Farm
2:30 pm An Installer's Perspective, Seth Wilkinson, Wilkinson Ecological Design
3:15 pm Adjourn

If you have pictures/posters let us know, will will have boards to display them.

Please cut & mail this portion with Registration fee.

Please register by mail for this event by May 15th

Registration fee is $20, which includes coffee, continental breakfast and lunch

Make your check out to: Woods Hole Sea Grant, 193 Oyster Pond Road, MS #2, Woods Hole, MA, 02543

Direct questions to: gberman@whoi.edu

Name: _____ Vegetarian Lunch (circle one): yes / no

Organization: _____

Email: _____ Cell phone # for ferry pickup: _____

